Thanks for this.

I assume the chromebook and charger due last year is an oversight.

The library books listed are not at home. I checked his bookcase in his room and throughout the house. I asked Caleb to check his classroom tomorrow and bring it to you if he finds them.

Caleb said he never had the wrestling book so can you please check for it on the shelf?

If they are not located by the end of the week send me the replacement cost.

Thanks.

I have to call and finalize my financial report (first time they've ever made me do this) before they will send the invoice. I will do this as soon as the KSA survey is completed tomorrow!
Have a great night!
